Second Generation (Parents)

2. Grandfather Robert Patrick Tyrrell was born on 15 Dec 1890 in Glasgow, Hutchinson, Lanarkshire County, Scotland and died in Apr 1964 in New York at age 73. Other names for Robert were Patrick Tyrrell and Robert Joseph Tyrrell.

General Notes: The ship manifest for when he immigrated shows his birth year as 1892. The 1930 US Census has it as 1896. The date used is from his WW I registration which he signed. 1930 census shows his occupation as a plumber for the Grand Central Railroad. The WW I registration shows the same thing. The ship manifest lists him as Patrick but the 1930 census shows Robert. The WW I registration shows his name as Robert Joseph and the WW II registration shows his name as Robert Patrick. The dob for the draft registrations match.

Birth records for Hutesontown Glasgow Scotland were searched up to 1900 but no record of Robert Tyrrell's birth was found.

He remarried a Scottish lady named Sally (in '50's). When she died they'd had parties singing the bar song, "I wonder what became of Sally" Our Scottish sense of humor."

1930 Census shows Patrick and Anna Tryrell living at 279 Washington Street Bronx, NY. Living there are sons Joseph, Thomas and Charles so I don't think this is the same Patrick Tyrrell.

My grandmother, Margaret Scott Straiton Tyrrell, died of cancer at the ripe old age of 46 in 1940; I was 2 years old. We lived in Yonkers, thereafter, moved to Parkchester along with my Aunt Fran who was ten years older than me. My grandfather moved there also and had an apartment in the next bldg.

He remarried a Scottish lady named Sally (in '50's). When she died they'd have parties singing the bar song, "I wonder what became of Sally. " Our Scottish sense of humor. Hope this trivia is of interest.

Ancestors of Father Robert William Tyrrell

Ancestors of Father Robert William Tyrrell

Fourth Generation (Great-Grandparents)

8. G2 Great Grandfather William Tyrrell was born circa 1827 in Inchicore, Ireland and died on 28 Sep 1887 in Goldenbridge (Dublin), Ireland about age 60.

General Notes: The burial record record for William Tyrrell listed a Monica Sherry, a niece, as providing the information. There is a record of a Monica Tyrrell marrying a James Sherry on the same day a Patrick Tyrrell married an Ellen Sherry. It appears a brother and sister married a brother and sister. However their ages suggest they were born early 1840s and a search of online records so far digitized shows twins Patrick and Monica Tyrrell born 1833. These families appear to be in Dublin after 1900. However, because of doubt with their births, a search continued on Rathmines Parish Register (south of Goldenbridge and not digitized) but very few Tyrrells were listed per its index. Further research would need to be conducted.

NY shows a death record for William Tyrrell wife Anna DaVerne and daughter Francis. There's no date and there's no other information to suggest that William came to NY and died there.
